

Brewing Instructions

Important to note, there are many types of tea in the major tea categories and the brewing time will differ. Test within the recommended times. The average amount of tea is a level tea spoon per cup. Herbal teas may require a heaping tea spoon.

White - 2-4 minutes

Green - Japanese (steamed tea) 2 - 2 ½ some can be 3 minutes
- China (fired/roasted) 2-3 minutes some can be 4 minutes.
Important to remember not to boil the water. If tea taste bitter it has brewed to long, add more tea and adjust your brewing time within the suggested range.

Oolong - depending on the leaves, brewing time can range from 2-7 minutes, on an average 4 minutes.

Black - 3-5minutes - some black tea such as Darjeeling, which is a delicate tea, use a shorter time - 2 -2 ½ minutes

Herbal tea /Tisanes come from many different types plants - flowers, herbs, roots, spices, and fruit, so they require different brew times. Averaging between 3-7 minutes.

Vermarjé Tea Co.

vermarje.com